Hon. W. C. Davis.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

The Eagle is authorized to announce Hon. W. C. Davis, representative from Brazos county, as a candidate for the office of State Senator from the Twelfth senatorial district, composed to the counties of Brazos, Robertson, Limestone and Freestone, subject to the Democratic primaries July 25.

Mr. Davis was elected to the legislature two years ago and served in that body with distinction, and his record is one in which his friends indulge pardonable pride. The speaker honored him with a place on several of the most important committees and he took rank with the leading men of the body in shaping legislation.

Mr. Davis secured the passage of the telegraphers' eight hour law, lent substantial aid to the bill for the payment of special veniremen summoned and not taken on a case, and also to the bill by which negro school trustees were discontinued. The most important work of Mr. Davis was, however, in the interest of the A. and M. College, and it is noteworthy that the appropriations secured for the current two years are twice as large as for any previous equal period, the total for the two years being more than $400,000.

Mr. Davis is a student of public affairs, ready as a speaker and debater and possessed of pleasing address. He is well qualified for the duties of the office he seeks, and we present his claims to the voters with pleasure.

Biographical

Mr. W. C. Davis was born in Alabama 20 years ago, but came to Texas with his father's family when but four years of age. He was raised on his father's farm near Huntsville, in Walker county and the foundation of his education was obtained in the country schools nearby. He later entered Baylor University at Waco and graduated with honors from that institution in 1899 taking the degree of A. B. After graduating at Baylor he attended the law department of the State University at Austin, and completed his education at the Chicago University, making a specialty of political economy.

After coming to Bryan he was principal of the High School, voluntarily retiring from the schools to enter upon his profession as a lawyer, in which he has been highly successful.

KIDNAPS KICKAPOOS.

Goode Charged With This and Suspension Follows.

El Paso, May 9.—Mark Goode, agent of the department of the interior, has been suspended from the government service pending an investigation of the charges that he kidnapped five Kickapoo Indians from the Indian reservation in order to keep them away from the tribal conference called to decide how to divide the $215,000, appropriated to the Indians by congress.

HARRINGTON AT AUSTIN.

Had Business With Printing Department and Also the Governor.

Austin, May 9.—President Harrington of the agricultural and mechanical college was here Saturday on business with the state department of printing and to also see the governor. Chairman Liggett of the college board was also here, likewise Hutton Summers of Dallas who has been employed by the college alumni to look after their interests.

Governor Campbell returned from his trip to the Senora country and reports having the best kind of a time. He has many nice things to say about the people in that section and predicts that San Angelo is one of the coming cities in the west.

DAVIS CENTENNIAL.

Great Preparations Being Made to Properly Celebrate the Event.

Austin, May 9.—Great preparations are being made here for the proper celebration of the anniversary of the centennial celebration of President Jefferson Davis' birthday, June 3, at which time the Confederate women's home will be formally dedicated. Among speakers for this occasion are Governor Campbell, former Governor Sayers and Associate Justice Brown.

BOYS' BAD PLIGHT.

Walked Part of the Way and Rode in Wagon and on Cars.

Fort Worth, May 9.—Three brothers—Luther Cooper, aged ten, Lee aged seven, and Sidney aged four—arrived at this city penniless. They are on their way to their grandfather's farm near Memphis, Tex. The boys had nothing to eat for two days. Bystanders at the train station made up a fund and bought them food, clothing and provided car fare. The youngsters came from Arkansas, where their father has lately died, leaving them alone in the world. The boys had walked and ridden in freight cars and wagons from Pine Bluff, being a week on the way.

HAMITER GOVERNOR.

Speaker Is Acting Until Pindall Returns From Washington.

Little Rock, May 9.—Allan Hamiter, speaker of the house of representatives of the Arkansas legislature, Saturday took the oath of office as governor. He will serve until the return of Governor Pindall, president of the state senate, who is serving as acting governor, and who has gone to Washington to attend the governors' conference, thereby leaving the state without executive.

Acting Governor Hamiter, it is said, will probably call a special session of the legislature.

Negro Boy Drops Dead.

Dallas, May 9.—Jimmie Lee, a negro, dropped dead. Appendicitis was the cause.

TO REBUILD IMMEDIATELY.

Every Property Owner Will Erect at Once Modern Structures.

Atlanta, May 9.—Atlanta's business interests will rebuild immediately the three square blocks of buildings destroyed in Friday's fire. Practically every owner in the district has announced that modern structures will be erected when the ruins have been cleared.

Hundreds of men are at work cleaning out the pile of bricks and stone, tearing down tottering walls, restoring streets to traffic, replacing broken telephone and telegraph poles and digging safes out of the wreckage. The loss stands at practically $11,250,000, with insurance of about $900,000.

NOT MURDERESS.

Body of Woman at Laporte Weighs Fifty Pounds Less.

Chicago, May 9.—Dr. Harry H. Long, for two terms coroner of Laporte county, says a special to the Tribune from Laporte, who assisted in the post-mortem examination over the body supposed to be that of Mrs. Guinness, declared the remains positively are not those of the arch-murderess. He states the body in the morgue is that of a woman who weighed fifty pounds less than did Mrs. Guinness. Dr. Long says Mrs. Guinness is still alive.

Paris (Tex.) Creamery company has been organized.

He has since won a high place on the forum in the intercollegiate debate, and he is at present assistant editor-in-chief of The Texan, the University bi-weekly paper.

NEWS FORECAST COMING WEEK.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Events which promise to figure prominently in the news of the coming week include a number of State political conventions, the conference of governors at the White House, the laying of the corner stone of the Pan-American peace palace in this city, and the conclusion of the visit of the battleship fleet at San Francisco.

The last of the Republican State conventions for the election of delegates at large to the national convention will be held during the week. The Republican State conventions will be held in Oregon, Montana, Michigan, California, North Dakota, Idaho, Georgia, Texas and Louisiana. The negro Republicans of Virginia have called a state convention to meet at Richmond Thursday to elect contesting anti-Taft delegates to the Democratic State convention to be held in Minnesota Thursday, where the Bryan supporters are fighting hard to prevent an endorsement of Governor Johnson for the presidential nomination.

Pursuant to the call of Governor Hughes the New York legislature will convene in extra session Monday to take up the anti-race-track gambling bills.

The laying of the corner stone for the magnificent building to be erected in this city as a home for the Bureau of American Republics promises to be a notable event of Monday. Cardinal Gibbons is to deliver the invocation and the speakers will include in addition to President Roosevelt, Secretary Root, Andrew Carnegie and the Brazilian ambassador.

The conference of governors called by President Roosevelt to discuss the great problem of the conservation of the national resources will assemble at the White House Wednesday for a session of three days. It is expected that every state will be represented Tuesday by another conference of similar scope to discuss the subject of drainage.

The week will afford one continuous round of entertainment for the officers and men of the battleship fleet at San Francisco. In addition to a long list of athletic events and public entertainments there will be a number of excursions to San Jose, Santa Rosa, Tamalpais, Vallejo, Palo Alto and other points within easy distance of the Golden Gate.

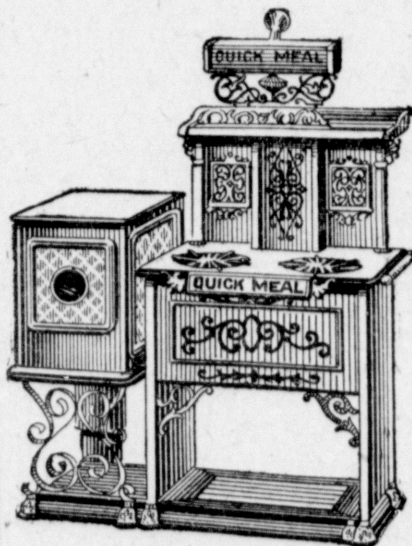

Foreign events of interest will include the opening of the Franco-British Exhibition near London and an international conference at Brussels to discuss a draft of codes of international maritime laws. The Franco-British Exhibition has been completed at a cost of $10,000,000, and is said to be one of the largest affairs of its kind ever attempted in the British Isles.

Important meetings and conventions scheduled for the week include the Episcopal church Congress in Detroit, the annual meeting of the Congregational Home Missionary Society at Pittsfield, Mass., and a convention of real estate men in Chicago to form a national organization.

FLEET COMMANDS CHANGED.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Important changes are due among the commanding officers of the battleship fleet at San Francisco today in pursuance of orders issued by the Navy Department. The most important change is that affecting Rear Admiral Evans, the commander-in-chief of the fleet. Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas, who has commanded the second squadron of the Atlantic fleet, relieves Rear Admiral Evans of the supreme command. The change marks the close of Rear Admiral Evans' active career in the navy, though he is not to be officially retired until next August.

Rear Admiral W. H. Emory is detached from duty in command of the second division, first squadron, and will command the fourth division, second squadron. Rear Admiral Charles S. Sperry is relieved from command of the fourth division, second squadron, and will command the second squadron. Captain Seaton Schroeder, who will shortly reach the grade of Rear Admiral, is detached from command of the battleship Virginia to command the second division, first squadron. Captain Alexander Sharp succeeds him as commander of the battleship Virginia.

SOCIAL AND CLUB MATTERS.

Mrs. G. W. Emory was hostess to the Week End Club on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The reception rooms of her beautiful home were bedecked with roses, cape jasmines and pansies, palms and ferns were placed in a graceful manner on the stair landing and in windows. Tables placed about the rooms for the games of forty-two. The pretty score cards were in the shape of dominoes and the games were played with domino cards instead of the regular dominoes. Mrs. Emory, always a thoughtful hostess looked after the pleasure of each guest, seeing that each lady had a good time. At the close of several games a dainty salad course was served.

The Bachelor Girls are a club of girls that make it a rule to always have a good time. One of the most enjoyable meetings they have had this season was held on Wednesday afternoon with Miss Frances Fountain at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fountain. Gibson heads done in pen and ink were the dainty score cards used for the game of forty-two. Mrs. Fountain assisted the hostess in entertaining her guests and in serving refreshments consisting of cream and cake. Miss Gussie Buchanan was the fortunate winner of the souvenir, which was a Merry Widow bow.

An event to impart its pleasing touches of interest and enjoyment to those participating was the afternoon Thursday, when Mrs. J. A. McQueen entertained the Entre Nous Club in honor of Mrs. Charles Mills of Corsicana and Mrs. Fred Smith of Dallas. Sweet peas nodded a glad welcome here and there shedding their fragrance on the air. The score cards were unique and especially pretty. Eight tables of players enjoyed the games of five hundred. Mrs. A. J. Buchanan kept score during the afternoon. The refreshment plate was especially pretty and tempting. Strawberry cream garnished with berries and white cake with the sweet pea mints were served. A bunch of sweet peas was placed on each plate. At the close of the afternoon each guest assured Mrs. McQueen she had spent a most enjoyable time.

The Bachelorettes Club was invited to meet with Miss Alma Robinson on Thursday afternoon. Quite a crowd of girls were present to enjoy the hospitality of the Robinson home. Miss Alma arranged for her guests play forty-two, which game they never tire of. The score cards were especially pretty, being little Dutch girls done in water colors. The prize a pretty picture was won by Miss Blanch Buchanan. Cream and cake were served.

The young people of the Free Baptist church had a social gathering at the home of Mrs. L. A. Swanwick Thursday evening, given in honor of Mr. Maurice Tatum and his sister, Miss Georgia, who are to take their departure shortly for Oelwein, Iowa. The house was full to overflowing with some of Bryan's brightest young people who spent a pleasant evening and presented Miss Georgia with a beautiful bracelet to be kept as a token of sweet memories. Miss Georgia acknowledged their kindness by a few gracious words, at the close of which most eyes were moist with tears. The evening was further enhanced by the gracious presence of Miss Margaret McLaughlin of Sparta, Ill., a relative of Mrs. L. A. Barrow. Refreshments were served, after which all took their leave.

The most brilliant event of the week was the Japanese dance given Friday evening at the Rink by Miss Frances Fountain, the popular sponsor, to the officers and members of Company D of the A. and M. corps of cadets. The decorations were very handsome embodying the A. and M. colors with elaborate Japanese effects, moss and other accessories. One hundred couples participated in the grand march which was led by Capt. Tom Adams and Miss Fountain, who wore an exquisite gown of lavender silk, embroidered with chrysanthemums. The young ladies were all gowned in the costumes of the fair daughters of Nippon, and a more brilliant and enjoyable function has not been given in Bryan for many months. A cotillion with Japanese favors was a feature of the dance. Brick cream and cake in the A. and M. colors were served. Handsome programs embossed in the A. and M. colors were passed.

Mrs. Milton Parker Jr. will be the hostess to the Entre Nous Club and Bachelor Girls Club on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Parker.

Mrs. T. K. Lawrence will entertain the Embroidery Club on Tuesday afternoon.

CHARGES STRENGTHENED.

Lamphere Shows a Desire to Unseal
His Lips and Relate Particulars, but Acting Under the Advice of Attorney Has Not Done So.

Laporte, Ind., May 9.—Developments in the Guinness-Lamphere case came thick and fast Friday evening, and each additional circumstance brought to light being of a nature to strengthen the charges against Ray Lamphere, who is accused of first degree murder because of the deaths of Mrs. Belle Guinness and her three children. Lamphere sent a request to his attorney, W. H. Worden, asking the latter to send to the farm of John Wheatbrook for the trunk, which Lamphere left there when he was arrested April 28. But before this word had reached the attorney the trunk had been confiscated by local authorities. It contained a number of letters written by Mrs. Guinness to Lamphere after the latter had taken employment at the farm of John Wheatbrook, near Springfield, seven miles north of this city. The exact dates on these letters were not announced, but that they were sent was evidenced by the fact that Lamphere went to the Wheatbrook farm Feb. 3, 1908. The woman wrote to Lamphere urging him to return to her farm and to "bring your sweetheart with you, if she has money enough." The identity of the woman is a mystery, and neither does Mrs. Guinness mention the amount deemed necessary for her reception at the Guinness home. Along with the letters were found several woman's finger rings, some of which were of unusual size, and they may have been the property of Mrs. Guinness.

Lamphere evidenced a desire to break the silence which he has kept since his arrest. To a visitor to his to talk about, but my attorney of cell he said:

"There are some things I would like to talk about, but my attorney has told me to say nothing about my troubles to any one. But there are some things which I think might be talked about and not hurt my case any. They might even help me if they became known."

Lamphere then made the request that his attorney be informed of his desire for clothing in the trunk at Springfield. Friday evening Attorney Worden went to the jail and asked to see his client, but in the absence of the sheriff he was denied admittance. He did not relish this circumstance, and producing habeas corpus papers from his pocket, he asserted that he would file them in court to compel the authorities to allow him to see his client.

Ralph N. Smith, the prosecuting attorney, was again in conference with Detective C. J. Smith, who was called into the case. They and the sheriff's force went over the evidence collected during the day, including that of the two eye-witnesses and the letters found in Lamphere's trunk.

Peter Colson told R. N. Smith, the prosecuting attorney, that Ray Lamphere had acknowledged attempts to blackmail Mrs. Guinness. This is considered as definitely establishing a motive for a disagreement between Lamphere and the woman which resulted later in the burning of the farm house.

Mrs. Leo Greening said her son, Emil, who formerly worked on the notorious farm, saw two strangers at the place the night that Jennie Olsen disappeared in November, 1906. Emil Greening is now said to be in Oklahoma City, and the sheriff's office will try to communicate with him in the hope of establishing the fact that Mrs. Guinness had accomplices in the murders at her place.

SINISTER FACT.

Max Sorenson Died One Day Before
Expiration of Life Insurance.

Chicago, May 9.—A sinister fact in connection with the death of Max Sorenson, the first husband of Mrs. Guinness, was revealed Friday, when it became known that he died just one day before an insurance policy which he had been carrying for some years, would have expired, and two days after a second policy which he intended to substitute for the first time became operative.

Sorenson had for some years carried insurance for $2,000 in a fraternal organization known as the Independent Order of Mutual Aid, but determining to drop this, he had taken out another for $3,000 in the North American Union. His death was so timed that the widow collected both policies.

A theory that part of the Guinness farm at Laporte was a private burying ground was advanced Thursday by John Larson, a nephew of Mrs. Guinness, residing in this city.

The records of the dead show that from 1851 to 1873 the land was owned by Dr. B. R. Carr of Laporte, and Larson believes that the bones are those of people buried there by the physician.

The Laporte authorities are now trying to learn whether or not Dr. Carr had a private burying ground on the place.
